

The Doorbell Of Forgiveness

By Don E. Stevens
& his Young People's Group
290 pages (London: Companion Books, 2011)

This book is based on a seminar given by Don E. Stevens during October 2007. He felt strongly that the most important spiritual work in the world today is associated with forgiveness. Don and his Young Peoples Group met to determine the best way forward.

DON E. STEVENS

“ This is a very significant book, that features a very significant man ... Don E. Stevens. I consider him a great thinker, and a great lover of God. For nearly 60 years of his life he was intimately connected with Sufism, and on several occasions had met (and spent intimate time with) a Teacher who many consider to have been the Christ — the Buddha come again.

As one might take a class called Psychology 101 or 102 ... this book gets way beyond that; this is an advance look, extended discussions and understanding of something that is so vital to spiritual growth, human welfare and love: forgiveness. ”
